

Join Us for Richmond's 3rd Annual International Women's Day Celebration

Women In Solidarity: Healing Our Beloved Community

* * *

Mujeres en Solidaridad: Sanando Nuestra Querida Comunidad

Saturday
March 13, 2010
10am-3pm

Lovonya DeJean School
3400 Macdonald Ave.
Richmond, CA

Free Admission;
Lunch and Childcare
will be provided

To pre-register, please call 510-620-6502; Para asistencia
y registracion, llame 510-620-6527

Keynote Speaker:
Lakota
Harden

Native American Activist
and host of KPFA radio's Bay Native Circle

More speakers and performances by local dancers, poets,
and musicians

Round-table discussions with co-sponsoring organizations

Co-sponsors: Mayor Gayle McLaughlin, Black Alliance for Just Immigration, Black Women Organized for Political Action, Blacks Mobilizing Organizing and Educating Richmond, California Coalition for Women Prisoners, Communities for a Better Environment, Communities United Restoring Mother Earth, Community Violence Solutions, Contra Costa Commission for Women, CYCLE, Girls Inc., Haiti Action Committee, International Committee for the Freedom of the Cuban Five, Journeys Above and Beyond, Laotian Organizing Project, Morada de Mujeres del Milenio, Mothers Against Senseless Killing, Native American Health Center, Richmond Human Relations and Human Rights Commission, Richmond Office of Neighborhood Safety, Richmond Progressive Alliance, Richmond Regla Sister City Committee, Richmond Rivets, Rosie the Riveter WWII Homefront National Historic Park, RYSE Center, Saffron Strand, Solar Richmond, STAND! Against Domestic Violence, Tent City Peace Movement, The Latina Center, Ujima Family Recovery Services, Urban Tilth, Verde Partnership Garden, Weigh of Life, Youth Enrichment Strategies, Youth Together